HENRY HAWK IS AGAIN AT LARGE

MAKES GETAWAY FROM JAIL AT GRANT CITY YESTERDAY

AT THE DINNER HOUR

Janitor, Serving Criminal Dinner, Overcome and Hawk Makes Good His Escape.

Henry Hawk, notorious criminal of Maryville, is again at large. Yesterday noon, while the janitor of the jail at Grant City was taking Hawk's dinner into him, Hawk attacked him and put him out of the way, making a clean getaway from the jail.

At the time of the jail delivery the sheriff was out of town, there being no one about the jail but the janitor, Andy Sims, who is said to have been pretty badly used up in the encounter with the criminal.

Hawk was only recently brought back from an Oklahoma jail where he was serving out a term for bootlegging. While in the Oklahoma institution Hawk wrote a letter to the Worth County authorities at Grant City, telling them to come and get him for he was being used too "roughly" in Oklahoma and wanted to come back to Missouri to face a charge of burglary and larceny which had been laid against him by the prosecuting attorney of Worth county. Hawk and a partner were implicated in burglarizing a store at Sheridan some months ago.

CONTINUE GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT AGENCY

Service for Returned Soldiers, Sailors and Marines to Continue at Local Commercial Club.

Continuation of the Employment service for returned soldiers, sailors and marines, maintained at the Commercial Club in this city, which was ordered stopped several days ago because of lack of government funds, was ordered to be resumed in a leter from the United States Employment Agency at Kansas City to George A. Pickens last Thursday. The work of the government agencies will be carried on through a special appropriation pasesd by Congress for this purpose.

The ruling has little effect on the Commercial Club agency, as a free employment service is maintained at all times by the Club.

Mrs. Arch Moore and little daughter, May Louise, of Wichita, Kans., who have been visiting Mrs. Moore's aunt, Mrs. J. B. Robinson, and family, left Thursday afternoon for their home.

ST. JOSEPH TEAM TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

Fast Stuppy-Floral Nine Comet Foe at Fair Grounds; Locals to Appear in New Uniforms.

The Maryville Comets will meet the fast St. Joe Stuppy-Florals at the Fair grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

The Stuppys have one of the fastest semi-pro teams in St. Joseph and have made an enviable record in the Commercial League at that place this season. The sar[illegible]eam played here at Maryville tw[illegible]ago and won a close game 3 [illegible] Comets have taken the count[illegible] this season and this was at th[illegible] the the St. Joseph Stockyards.

The new uniforms fo[illegible]ets have arrived and the loca[illegible] will make their first appearance in [illegible]e new suits tomorrow. The togs are of a classy gray stripped with black and are of the latest "big league" cut.

The Comets went to Albany yesterday where they were scheduled to meet the team of that place at the Fourth of July celebration. Jupiter Pluvius opened his flood gates, however, and the game was called off.

FORGOT "RAGS" FOR A DAY

Haines Dry Goods Store Proprietor and Employees Hold Annual Picnic with Kansas Crowd.

The annual summer outing of the Haines bunch, which takes place on July Fourth, was held on schedule yesterday with the proprietor, Mr. aHrvey L. Haines, host to his employes on a motor trip and picnic at Sabetha, Kan., where they met the Sabetha "Haines Bunch" and spent the day.

The crowd of fifteen including proprietor and clerks, started from Maryville at 4 o'clock in the morning and had a delightful drive over. Sabetha had planned a big celebration and the employes of the Haines store there had expected to be busy all day and dispense with the usual frolic with the Maryville crowd as is their custom.

The appearance of the bunch in Sabetha, was a complete surprise and they had brought with them everything eatable to enjoy a big spread at noon which was held on the lawn of the old Haines homestead, with Mr. Haines father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Haines as hosts. Mr. C. S. Haines, proprietor of the Sabetha store, with his wife and sons and the employes of the store numbering about twenty made up the Kansas guests. Besides the Haines Bunch proper, the Maryville crowd included Elmer Allen, a former clerk, who has just recently returned from a long period of military duty overseas, and Miss Marie Smith of Denver, Colo., a house guest of Miss Gladys Ford.

As the storm clouds became evident just about the time the Burlington train left Sabetha, the picnickers selected the dry and safe route by train for the return trip, arriving home at 8:30 last night.

The stunt was planned as a surprise for the Sabetha folks and greeting cards and souvenirs in the Haines colors read "from the Playful Haines Bunch to the Hard Working Haines Bunch.

Clarence Cook Home.

Clarence Cook, who has been attending the American Academy of Dramatic Art in New York City, joined his wife in Maryville last night and they will spend the summer here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook, and Mrs. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Linville.

G. D. Reynolds of Chicago, arrived in Maryville Thursday evening to spend a week visiting friends.

Matthew XI, 28 to 30.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly of heart; and ye shall rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

Matthew XIX, 13 and 14.

Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands upon them, and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

GREATEST AFFAIR OF ITS KIND EVER ATTEMPTED BY A CHURCH

LIFE PLAYS WONDERFUL

"The Wayfarer" a Most Sublime and Inspiring Spectacle—Musical Features of Every Nature.

Dr.and Mrs. Gilbert S. Cox arrived this morning from Columbus, Ohio, where they have been attending the Centenary Celebration of the American Methodist Missions. Rev. W. F. Burris returned Thursday night. The rest of the party that went from here are spending a few more days at Columbus. Dr. Cox and Rev. Burris say that the big meeting is the most inspiring and elaborate event of its kind ever attempted by any religious organization and that words can not describe the magnificent spectacles and meetings that were held daily.

The Centenary Celebration which began June 20 will last until July 13. Hundreds of thousands of people from all countries of the world are in attendance and the people of Columbus have opened their houses to the immense throngs. The exhibits and the meetings are being held at the State Exposition Grounds at Columbus. The coliseum in which the indoor gatherings take place is the largest place of its kind in the world, seating 8,000 people.

There were addresses, entertainments, musical features and pageants of all kinds on the daily program. Addresses were made by such notables as William Jennings Bryan, John R. Mott, Pearly Baker and other famous speakers.

Musical numbers of various nature were given almost hourly. The Chicago and Cincinnati orchestras gave daily concerts and participated in many pageants.

A great organ which cost $50,000 to install furnished music in the big coliseum in the evenings.

Choruses, consisting of hundreds of people sang on many special occasions A children's chorus, made up of 1,000 white and colored boys and girls, participated in the Children's Crusade, Children's Day, July 4. The Spirituals were sung by a selected group of singers from the Southern Colleges.

A Trombone Choir of one hundred pieces, the greatest organization of its kind ever essembled, gave open air concerts. Edna White's Trumpeters were, also, a musical feature. Four big bands were there, giving concerts several times daily.

A magnificent pageant, "The Wayfarer," by J. E. Crowther, was one of the outstanding events among many others at the Celebration. The solo music for "The Wafarer," consisted largely of Oratorio selections from Handel's "Messiah," and Gormed's "Redemption." There were, also, a number of selections from Stainer's 'Crucifixion." The solo selections were sung by famous artists from New York City, assisted by a mammoth chorus of 1,000 voices. 2,800 people took part in the pageant, 500 appearing on the stage at one time.

A most striking feature of the Centenary meet was the life plays and demonstrations. These consisted of buildings in which native scenes, with natives participating, were set up in the "atmosphere" of the people of that region. For example in the India building were exact models of Mohammedan mosques, Hindu temples, village scenes and streets and court scenes. The most wonderful scene in this building was a large painting 150 feet in length of the Ganges river. There were eleven of these buildings, depicting the native life and habits in every country in the missionary world Hundreds of natives were brought to this country and six months' time was given to the building and arrangement of these exhibits.

Innumerable lectures, dealing with all kinds of religious, social, and civic problems were given by the leaders of the departments of the Methodist church and great religious and social workers from all parts of the world.

BELIEVE MANY DROWNED WHEN STEAMBOAT CAPSIZES

Waters of Lake Madison, Near Sioux Falls, S. D., Being Searched for Bodies of the Dead.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 5.—A search is being made today in the waters of Lake Madison near here for the bodies of more than a dozen persons who are believed to have drowned when an excursion boat capsized. Thirty were reported aboard, and only fifteen are known to have been rescued.

Up to noon today, seven bodies were recovered.

DIRIGIBLE STALLED OFF U. S. MAINLAND

R-34 RUNS OUT OF PETROL WITHIN SIGHT OF GOAL

NAVY TO THE RESCUE

Steam Yacht and Two Destroyers Ordered to Tow Craft in—Now in the Bay of Fundy.

Mineola, L. I., July 5.—Within sight of the American mainland and with the victory almost won, the giant British dirigible was reported this afternoon to be stalled between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia over the Bay of Fundy. It was on the last lap of the trans-Atlantic flight. First reports that the dirigible was in trouble came to officials here through the naval wireless stations who picked up messages from the dirigible, asking if a destroyer could proceed to the south end of the Bay of Fundy to take her into tow. The Navy department ordered a converted steam yacht, together with two destroyers to proceed to her rescue at once. It is supposed that the dirigible is out of petrol.

"A GOOD DAY FOR DUCKS"— BAD DAY FOR CELEBRATORS

Conception Fourth of July Program Was "Hampered" by Big Rain.

The big Fourth of July celebration which was to have been held at Conception yesterday did not get to materialize. About noon it began to rain and rained so consistently that the spiritsof the crowd gathering to attend the day's festivities were dampened and they made their way home as quickly and conveniently as they could Prosecuting Attorney Charles McCaffrey, who was to have "spellbound" the afternoon crowd claims that, at least, two inches of rain fell between the noon hour and 6 o'clock.

Tie-up on the Burlington.

The front trucks and drivers of an engine on the Burlington railroad jumped the track a short distance above Rosendale this morning, and while a wrecker was being awaited, the schedule was tied up.

The passenger from St. Joseph which is due to arrive here at 11:50 a. m., did not come in until 3:15 this afternoon.

To Live in Maryville.

Capt. John W. Raines and Miss Edith Raines left Rock Port Sunday for Maryville, from which place they left Tuesday for Colorado, where they will spend the greater part of the summer visiting Miss Theodosia Raines. When Mr. Raines returns in the fall he will make his home with the family of his son, Bert Raines, at Maryville. Having disposed of his business interests in Rock Port in connection with the abstract business which he has managed a number of years, he will from now on take things easy. His great host of Rock Port friends will regret his decision to leave the town where he has lived so many years, but he will doubtless find much happiness to be with the family of one of his children.—Rock Port Mail.

To Attend Wedding.

T. A. Cummins, his son, Frank Cummins, and daughter, Miss Marguerite Cummins, left this morning for Des Moines, Ia., where they will attend the wedding of young Mr. Cummins and Miss Katherine Muelhaupt, which takes place next Tuesday.

Spent Fourth at Big Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Wallis, Jr., Dr. H. L. Stinson, E. E. Williams and Donald Williams drove to Big Lake yesterday to spend the day. On account of the heavy rain at that place they left their car at Bigelow and returned to Maryville on the train.

MARYVILLE FOURTH SAFE AND SANE

AFTERNOON RAIN PUTS A CRIMP IN MOTOR TRIPS AND PICNICS

DEMPSEY NEW CHAMPION

Big Toledo Fight Returns Prove Attraction for "Stay-at-Homes" Maryville Women Show Interest.

A day of unusual quiet with only the occasional "pop" of a "baby" fire cracker, marked the passing of the Fourth of July in Maryville, and the old time crash and bang of the pre-war celebrations was noticeable by its absence.

The old fashioned family picnic came into its own yesterday, and scores of Maryville folks loaded baskets with good things to eat, filled their gasoline tanks with gas, and hied themselves to the country where they could spend the day next to Good Mother Nature. Jupiter Pluvius, however, took a hand in the affairs, and with his customary disregard for persons, time or place, open up his flood gates and put a crimp in the holiday plans with a heavy deluge of rain. According to Weather Forecaster Brink, .44 of an inch of rainfall fell yesterday afternoon.

Many of the picnickers were forced to abandon their cars in the mud, and return to Maryville last night via train.

Considerable interest in the Willard-Dempsey fight at Toledo yesterday was shown by those who stayed at home and throughout the afternoon a large crowd was before the windows of the Democrat-Forum awaiting the returns of the bout. Those who did not brave the elements to get the returns of the fight used the telephone to get their information, and for several hours the office of the Democrat-Forum was bombarded by barrage of calls. Contrary to the general idea that women are not sport enthusiastis, a large percentage of the calls yesterday were from feminine devotees of the square ring sport.

The fight at Toledo started well after 3:30, the time originally set for the opening of the hostilities, and the first report received over the International News wire here, was that Willard had been knocked out in the fourth round. Later, official reports from the ringside stated that the champion quit at the opening of the fourth round.

According to the returns, the fight started with a rush by Dempsey in which he knocked Williard down five times in the first round. The succeeding two rounds were all for Dempsey with Willard "covering up" and attempting to hang on through clinches. He was in a pitable condition at the end of the fight and his seconds threw up the towel at the opening of the fourth to save their man from the inhuman punishment which Dempsey was handing him.

PICNICKERS" HAD A BIG TIME---GETTING HOME

Started to Eat Their "Chow"Last Night But Will Finish Job Tonight.

About two hundred and fifty picknickers from the West First street neighborhood, journeyed out to the Ford farm ten miles west of Maryville yesterday to waste away the day in fun and frivolity. The trip was made in motor cars and in trucks. The real sports making the drive in a big truck steered by Homer Brown.

The chief dissipation of the joy party was to have been a baseball game but "the winds blew and the rains came" and there was none.

A mad scramble for a ride to Maryville featured the afternoon's program Upon arrival in town many of the party became fistic fans, watching the news flashes on the Democrat-Forum windows about the Willard-Dempsey ring classic.

Supper was eaten in a vacant house adjoining the Dr. Jesse Miller residence on West First street but the diners could not make away with all the east and are going to the college park tonight to finish the big feed.

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Clearmont News.

Earl Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Lewis, arrived home Monday evening, having just been discharged from the service. He has been in the service for more than two years, having enlisted before the first draft. He was among the first to go across the water and had been there about 20 months. He is like all the rest glad to get home.

Last Monday was Miss Nora Andrew's 18th birthday and her parents invited in a number of her associates and friends to spend the evening and assist in celebrating the event. Refreshments were served during the evening. A general good time was enjoyed by all present.

Robert Pence has leased his Poultry, Butter and Egg business, business house and residence to C. H. Snodgrass of Coin, Iowa, who will take charge of the business at once and move here at once.

Hopkins Journal.

John Galey and family and Charlie Owens returned last week from a trip to Siloam Springs, Ark., made in a car, being guests while there in the homes of Joe Galey and Wm. French. They met Cabe Miller, who is renewing his youth at the Springs, and also Judge Frank Hanna who has located there. A street fair was on at the Springs and Roy Godsay was there with his air plane doing a rushing business taking people to the clouds at one dollar a minute for each passenger. He is dated ahead for sometime but hopes to be able "to fly up" to Hopkins soon.

Through the agency of Sam Robbins, Henry Thompson has bought sixty acres of land of Wm. Clark, east of Hopkins at $125 an acre.

Rev. and Mrs. D. F. Stiles have as guests at the Methodist parsonage, Mr. and Mrs. Haltiwanger, who are here from Central America with a view of locating in the United States owing to the unrest among the inhabitants of Panama. Mrs. Haltiwanger, who visited here last September, is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Stiles.

Mrs. Eri Edmonds after having practically lived in Hopkins for 31 years, has given this place up as her home having sold her property to Wray Mahan, and it is with regret her many old friends say "goodbye."

Rev. Edmonds organized the first ladies aid of the Methodist church in Hopkins 31 years ago and of course his wife was a charter member, working faithfully with her husband when health permitted. Rev. Edmonds, well known as a minister thruout the whole of Northwest Missouri, was called to his reward three years ago. Mrs. Edmonds left Monday for Pickering where she will visit for a months in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Herbert, before going to the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Goodson, at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Pickering Items.

Our young Irish prosecutor, Chas. McCaffrey, is no respector of person and treats all alike. When a big corporation crosses his path he buckles on his armor and goes after it the same as he would a common bootlegger. Last week he caused the arrest of the station agent at Burlington on a charge of delivering booze. We are hoping that Mack sets the hair on the railroad company. Nodaway county is dry territory and the railroads have no business to haul in and deliver booze to the red noses and boys. Go right after them, Charley, the big majority of the people are with and for you.

We see where Fred Wolfers made a spread eagle talk at a street improvement meeting at Hopkins but would not come to his old home town and deliver the 4th of July address. Never mind, Fred, we'll get even with you by electing you prosecuting attorney the next time this office is to be filled.

Burlington Junction Post.

Just a year ago Thursday evening Burlington Junction had the most disastrous fire in its history. The blaze started in the Evans & Boyer garage from a gasoline explosion, and spread rapidly. It was never checked until it swept the west half of the principal business block of the town.

Five buildings were practically destroyed and two badly damaged by the fire. Those suffering the greatest loss were Corken Brothers, Corken & Yaple the Northwestern Bank and Dr. M. Carter, J. G. House, druggist, J. E. Rhodes real estate office, and Evans & Boyer garage were damaged or destroyed. The entire plant of the Post printing office went up in smoke, or down in junk.

But this great loss could not check the progressive spirit of those who suffered from the flames. Rebuilding was started just as soon as insurance adjustments could be made and the debris of the fire cleared away.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnston of Chicago are making an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caldwell on the Caldwell ranch west of town. Mrs. Johnston was formerly Miss Vern Calhoun, her marriage to Mr. Johnston taking place in Des Moines last week.

The city council met in regular session Thursday evening and passed an ordinance for paving four blocks of Main street. Bids are being advertised for this week. The bids will be opened July 18. Geo. Custer of Kansas City, who has been engaged to do the engineer work, was here Monday running the grades. He was assisted in this work by County Surveyor Miller.

The Methodist choir held a picnic at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nicholas Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Corken and children, who have gone to Hiawatha, Kan., to make their home. Members of the choir and their families and the Corken families, about forty in all, were present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Geo. A. Yates bought the 80 acre tract of land located east of the John Boyer farm Friday of Mrs. W. P. Neff. The transaction was made by J. E. Rhodes. The consideration was $112.50.

O. F. Wilson has been confined to the St. Francis hospital in Maryville suffering from a severe carbuncle on the back of his neck. The inflammation had been present for some time, but last week it became much worse and Mr. Wilson was advised to go to the hospital Friday.

"I'm about fed up," remarked Geo. McKnight Monday, who with his family is visiting relatives and old friends in Burlington Junction and Maryville. George is authority for the statement that Nodaway county women are still the best cooks in the world, saying he never had as many good meals as during his visit here.

Richard Zarn has bought the residence property which was the home for many years of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis. He will make the house thoroughly modern by installing a furnace and connecting an electric motor pump with the water system.

Skidmore News.

Two more of our boys rolled in home the past week after having seen service across the sea.

Both of these arrived home last Saturday morning and they are sure husky looking chaps. We are talking about Tom Hickerson, who arrived Saturday morning on the northbound passenger and Adrain Taylor who came home by way of Maryville.

Word has been received of the arrival of Bert Garnett last Sunday at Camp Devens and he is expected home in a few days.

After the cutting blade of the big township road grader had been sharpened at the Weddle blacksith shop last Monday it had been taken out and left to cool. Almost immediately, Dean Weddle, the eldest son of J. W. Weddle, Jr., came barefooted to the shop and stepped on the hot blade with both feet burning them so badly that the little fellow is suffering considerable pain He is getting along as well as could be expected, but it will be several days before he can get about without pain.

At a meeting held at the News office last Friday evening the following officers were elected to have charge of business of the chautauqua which will be held here July 30 to August 4, inclusive:

L. D. JORDAN, president.
J. C. Spahr, vice-president.
W. G. Reynolds, secretary.
G. L. Owen, treasurer.
A. C. Dodds, chairman advertising.
C. E. Owens, chairman grounds.
G. L. Owens, chairman tickets.

Elmo Register.

Miss Leona Grace Badger of Barnard was in town Saturday. She leaves this week for Los Angeles, Calif., for a visit of several weeks, and will not return until about time for school to open September 1. She is principal of the Elmo high school, and an efficient teacher.

Mr. Alexander says the Lincoln Township has gone over the top in the drive for the Salvation Army. Some districts had not yet reported, but the amount in sight was a little over $200. Elmo district raised $67.31. It looks like anyone would be ashamed not to contribute something however small it might be to this worthy cause.

Guilford Times.

Work is progressing fine on the new Bank building. Den Davis is laying the brick and A. C. Lee and Earl Montgomery are supplying him with brick and mortar. Lester Ellis is the contractor who has the building in charge until finished.

H. C. Skidmore and wife left Monday on train No. 2 for the West where they will spend a while visiting and sight seeing on the Western coast.

E. E. Carver was over near Graham one day last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Rowlett, who is very poorly and had spent about two weeks in a hospital in St. Joseph.

Parnell Sentinel.

Wm. Nye and wife arrived here a few days ago from northwest Nebraska This is their first visit here since they left 38 years ago. They formerly lived on the place now owned by Arch Woods. Many changes have taken place since they left here. There was no Parnell at that time and no railroad through this part of the country. Land sold than at $10 to $15 per acre and wasn't wanted at those prices very much.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

The Final Act in John Barleycorn's Lurid Life Enacted in Judge Duncan's Court.

Some wag (or rather a coterie of them) gave Judge A. B. Duncan a pleasant half hour in his court Monday afternoon when they filed with due solemnity the last will and testament of the defunct (that night) John Barleycorn. It was dated June 30, 1919, and witnessed by Bronx Cocktail and Cherry Highball. Here is the unique document:

"I, John Barleycorn of the United States of North America, being of sound and disposing mind and mindful of my demise on this last day of June, 1919, do make public and declare this to be my last will and testacent:

"1. I direct that the executor of my estate pay all my expense, funeral, etc.

"2. I will all of my highball, whiskey, wine and champagne glasses to my dear friend Marsh Mallow Sundae.

"3. I give and bequeath and device all my saloons, cafes and cabarets to my dear friend, O. U. Teetotaler.

"4. All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate (consisting largely of M. T. bottles) I give and bequeath to my beloved friend, Aqua Pura, he being a very close friend and associated with me in all business transactions.

"In witness whereof I hereby set my hand this 30th day of June, 1919.

(Signed)

JOHN BARLEYCORN.

(Witnesses)

BRONX COCKTAIL.
CHERRY HIGHBALL."

Immediately after the filing of the will a gentlemen in mourning, giving his name as O. I. M. Dry, appeared in the court and was granted letters testamentary upon filing of a $1,000,000 bond.

The will reads as follows:

"An inventory of the estate of the late John Barleycorn was filed in the Probate Court by the executor, O. I. M. Dry, and lists the following property:

"Personal Liberty, valued at $5,000,000,000.

"Twenty-five shares of stock in the Rotgut Distilling Company, valued at 50 cents.

"One hundred shares of stock in the Moonshine and Bootlegger Company, the value of which is so enormous that it cannot be estimated."

The inventory was signed by the following witnesses:

O. F. C. GUCKENHEIMER,
GIN RICKEY,
BELLE NELSON.

One Big Gala Week.

Dubinsky Bros. Stock Co., with Barney Dubinsky, Francis Valley, Frank Long, Harry Vickerey, Madge Russel, Fern Rae and John G. Rae, and the famous Hawaiian Orchestra will be with us all next week starting Monday at the Big Tent Theatre located on East Third Street.

This season finds The Dubinsky Bros., presenting a line of plays that are seldom produced outside of Kansas City and St. Joseph. But the best is none too good for the patrons of these well known managers and while the expense to produce these plays under canvas is large, it gives the public the chance to see the best in the country at popular prices.

During the engagement such plays as "A Young Girl's Romance," "The Divorce Cure," "He Fell in Love with His Wife," "Johnny Get Your Gun," "Champagne and Buttermilk" will be presented.

This year it requires one 70 foot baggage car to transport the scenery stage furniture and the electrical equipment alone besides a car for the other regular tent equipment.

The opening play Monday night will be, the comedy drama sensation, "The Girl Who Dared." Make it a point to be there Monday night sure.

Miss Jeanette Tate is here from Grant City for a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Tate.

MINISTER REVIEWS THE LIFE OF JOHN BARLEYCORN

Rev. C. G. Bellah in St. Louis Pulpit, Gives a History of king Booze.

St. Louis, July 5—In a facetious sermon on the "funeral of J. Barleycorn," Rev. C. G. Bellah, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church here declared that our tried and untrue friend was born in the home of Noah, in Mount Ararat, Southern Asia, 2347, B. C.

"John was an unruly child from his birth," the pastor said "and manifested a growing spirit of foam and ferment. His age at death was 4266 years."

Rev. Mr. Bellah related "minor operations, removing part of his anatomy," and " an attack of dry decay, when Maine went dry in 1851, after which he was never quite the same. Then the women became incensed at him, and the W. C. T. U. secured a divorce and never asked or desired alimony from him."

Barleycorn has, " a cutting pain near the heart in 1901, when the canteen was abolished from the U. S. Army.

"And all this culminated in the bone-dry amendment, December, 1916," the preacher said.

An amusing passage was the "church affilations" of "J. Barleycorn.'

"Thousands of young men and women became first acquainted with him at the church altar. Others have gone to church, hoping never to meet him again, but have been mortified to find that John had personal friends in both pulpit and pew."

The business relations of John were spoken of. John's sales for the past year were $3,000,000,000. He had an income of about $7,000,000, the pastor said.

"He created a lot of business for the poor. Many a washerwoman would have had nothing to do but care for the home and rear the children if it had not been for John. If John had gone to the poorhouse, most of the inmates would have gone out."

"John Barleycorn's social life was also touched upon. "Few liked to live near him," said the minister. "No realtor in advertising stated as an inducement the fact that John lived next door or on the next corner.

"John Barleycorn" was not a conscientious objector, but a conscienceless objector. While the beggar was striving for maintenance, John's bins were packed with malt and meal. While the poor shivered for lack of coal, he not only had his sheds full, but tried to tie up the railroads with his own business. He became acquainted with the boys in khaki, and was so persistent that the government had to establish zones around the camps and forbid his entrance.

"Once more a reeling, staggering nation may walk steadily again. We have sheathed the sword and shelved the still. War and wine are over, a kaiser and knave are crushed. Five million happy mothers may cuddle their offspring and look across the hearth at sober, loving husbands; 5,000,000 prosperous men may go to honest toil with a light heart, a firm tread and a full pail. Thank God for this."

NOT MUCH INTERESTED IN OLD; WANTS NEW ONE

Kansas City, July 5—"Seems to me there was a former suit by these parties," said Judge F. G. Hutchings, in his division of the Wyandotte County Circuit Court, addressing George Carr, a negro who was the plaintiff.

"That's correct," replied Carr. "Six yeas ago I filed suit for divorce in this very court. The case was taken under advisement. I never took the trouble to find out the decision."

Judge Hutchinson took the case under advisement again until the records could be looked up to see the disposition of the former case.

$18,000 YEARLY ENOUGH FOR GIRL, JUDGE SAYS

New York, July 5—Pity poor Lorena Carroll!

Surrogate Fowler has decided that Lorena, who is nineteen, must try to get along on $18,000 a year. She recently submited an application to have the amount increased to $22,500 a year because of the increased cost of living. The Court denied the application.

Miss Carroll is the daughter of Joseph D. Carroll, prominent horseman and politician, who died some time ago, leaving his daughter the income from $150,000 until she became of age, when she will get the residue of the estate, which is estimated at $1,250,000.

Miss Rose Meyer of St. Joseph is the guests of Miss Nora Ellerman of Clyde this week.

Charles Avery of Kansas City spent yesterday and today here visiting old friends.

WHEN BEATTY PUT TO SEA

Like Drake of Old, Commander of British Fleet Left the Tennis Court for Battle.

Scarcely had I arrived at Aberdour when I learned that some unusual report had come in from the sea, Lieutenant Hunter writes in the World's Work. The admiral had arrived before me and continued to talk on his open wire for some moments. The fleet at once dropped from four to two and one-half hours' notice for steam and shortly afterward was making preparation for departure at a moment's notice. When Sir David came out to the tennis court he suggested that I need not answer the recall signal from my ship as expected, but return with him. "I don't believe they intend to shove off without me," he added. We started our game, but over the wire the admiral had thrown the scent into the kennels and already the leaders of that great pack, so apparently listless a short hour before, were bristling and snarling on the new-found trail. With a pleasant smile Admiral Beatty jerked his racket toward the Firth. From the court which overlooks the entrance could be seen the first of the screening groups as they slipped quietly to sea. Division followed division, as destroyers, light cruisers and scouts passed on to their appointed tasks. The grand fleet was in motion. In motion at the direction of its great commander in chief, who, while actually commanding his fleet by wire, was also my partner in a game of tennis. Messages came to him too often for his liking, as far as the game was concerned. Several he dispatched in reply, but it soon became too hot, forcing departure for a sterner game.

DEMAND NOW IS FOR MUSIC

Freak Attire and Mannerisms No Longer Attract Streams of Dollars to the Concert Hall.

It looks as if the old order of musicians will soon be moss covered. The tously headed individual in freak attire does not find his camouflaged personality a passport to capacity houses. If the dead composers had messages for modern humanity the messages must be interpreted by modern men and modern women.

The musician of today looks like a smart business or professional man rather than an idle dreamer, observes the Philadelphia Record. He is as good a customer as the barber has. Short cropped hair is supplanting the shaggy locks of former days. The schoolboy's Windsor tie and low collar have given way to the neat four in hand and regular business man's collar. The Buffalo Bill chapeau is ousted by the conventional fedora. Odd mannerisms which serve no useful purpose are cast off.

The modern musician is a good mixer. He wants to know his public first hand, and he enters into the general life of the community instead of acting the recluse. By mingling he has learned that people now want music, not gesticulations nor dress. Concert goers are more concerned about what they hear than what they see. An artist's reputation for freakishness off the stage does not offset poor execution on the stage. The music-loving public has developed to the point where sham and pretense are useless. Nothing but the ability to produce good music can get past.

Censor Hun Telephone Talks.

At first, all use of telephones was forbidden to the inhabitants of occupied towns (of Germany), but this rule has been relaxed also. In the French zone the natives are allowed telephone calls within their own city; while in Coblenz the Americans allow this and also permit the use of five trunk lines from the occupied territory into Germany proper. Thus a German in Coblenz may talk directly to a German in Berlin.

Except in cases of extreme personal necessity, all such calls are supposed to be confined to the transaction of important business, and of course American army censors "listen in" on every call. This privilege was given to the Germans of Coblenz because it was found that the sudden and complete interruption of contact between the two banks of the Rhine caused a great deal of inconvenience and suffering.—Gregory Mason in Outlook.

Starting Something.

The household was comparatively quiet when the ten-year-old son looked up from the last page of a recent issue of the News and inquired of both parents sitting near: "What's funny about this here 'Abe Martin?' 'There's never anything t' eat in a home where th' wife is on an allowance.'" "The joke, my son," his father replied, "is that instead of spending the allowance for eats, the wife blows it in for clubs, clothes, candy and conventions." "No, son," said the mother, "the fact is that the allowance is not large enough to provide a hotel menu, though the men seem to think it is. And that is no joke, either."—Indianapolis News.

Bullet in Brain Twenty Years.

After living for 20 years with a bullet in his brain, Edgar Wilgus, an insurance broker of Trenton, N. J., was killed by a 5-foot fall on the granite steps of a New York hotel. The medical examiner, discovering the bullet in the man's brain, thought at first that he had been unaccountably shot, but learned by telephoning to his home how long he had carried the bullet in his head.

THE FAITH AND DOCUMENTS OF THE LATTER DAY SAINTS.

We believe in God the Eternal Father and in His Son Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost. Matt. 28:19. 1 John 1:3. St. John 11:26.

We believe that men will be punished for their own sins, and not for Adam's transgression. Ecc. 12:14. Matt. 16:27. 1 Cor. 3:13. Rev. 20:12-15.

We believe that through the atonement of Christ, all men may be saved, by obedience to the laws and ordinances of the gospel. 1 Cor. 15:3. 2 Tim. 1:10. Rom. 8:1-6.

We believe that these ordinances are:

(1st.) Faith in God and in the Lord Jesus Christ. Heb. 11:6. 1 Peter 1:21. 1 Tim. 4:10. John 3:16, 18, 36. Mark 11:22. John 14:1.

(2) Repentence. Matt. 3:2, 8, 11. Luke 13:3; 24:47. Ezek. 18:30. Mark 1:5, 15. Acts 2:38. Rom. 2:4. 2 Cor. 7:10.

(3rd.) Baptism by immersion, for the remission of sins. Matt. 3:13-15. Mark 1:4, 5. Luke 3:3. John 3:5. Acts 2:28; 22:16; 2:41; 8:12; 37, 38, Mark 16:16. Col. 2:12. Rom. 6:4, 5. John 3:23. Acts 8:38, 39.

(4th.) Laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost. Deut. 34:8. John 20:21, 22. Acts 8:17; 19:6. 1 Tim. 4:14. Acts 9:17. 1 Cor. 12:3. Acts 19:1-6.

(5th.) We believe in the Resurrection of the Body; that the dead in Christ will rise first, and the rest of the dead will not live again until the thousand years are expired. Job 19:25, 26. Dan. 12:2. I Cor. 15:42. I Thess-4:16. Rev. 20:6. Acts 17:31. Phil. 3:21. John 11:24. Isaiah 26:19. Ps. 17:15.

(6th.) We believe in the doctrine of Eternal Judgment, which provides that men shall be judged, rewarded, or punished, according to the degree of good, or evil, they shall have done. Rev. 20:12. Ecc. 3:17. Matt. 16:27. 2 Cor. 5:10. 2 Peter 2:4, 13, 17.

P5:: .: (:HI; N-3;9ro

We believe that a man must be Called of God, and ordained by the Laying on of Hands of those who are in authority to entitle him to preach the Gospel, and Administer in the Ordinances thereof. Heb. 5:1, 5, 6, 8. Acts 1:24, 25; 14:23. Eph. 4:11. John 15:16.

We believe in the same kind of organization that existed in the primitive church, viz: Apostles, Phophets, Pastors, Teachers, Evangelists, &c. 1 Cor. 12:28. Matt. 10:1. Acts 6:4. Eph. 4:11; 2:20. Titus 1:5.

We believe that in the Bible is contained the word of God, so far as it is translated correctly. We believe that the canon of scripture is not full, but that God, by His Spirit, will continue to reveal His word to man until the end of time. Job 32:8. Hebrews 13:8. Proverbs 29:18. Amos 3:7. Jeremiah 23:4; 31:31, 34; 33:6. Psalms 85:10, 11. Luke 17:26. Rev. 14:6, 7; 19:10.

We believe in the powers and gifts of the everlasting gospel, viz: the gift of faith, discerning of spirits, prophecy, revelation, visions, healing, tongues, and the interpretation of tongues, wisdom, charity, brotherly love, &c. 1 Cor. 12:1-11; 14:26. John 14:24. Acts 2:3. Matt. 28:19,20. Mark 16:16.

We believe that Marriage is ordained of God; and that the law of God provides for but one companion in wedlock, for either man or woman,—except in cases where the contract of marriage is broken by death of transgression. Genesis 2:18, 21-24; 7:1, 7, 13. Proverbs 5:15-21. Malachi 2:14, 15. Matthew 19:4-6. 1 Cor. 7:2. Heb. 13:4. Doctrine and Covenants, sec. 42:7; 49:3.

We believe that the doctrines of a plurality and a community of wives are heresies, and are opposed to the law of God. Gen. 4:19, 23, 24; 7:9; 22:2, in connection Gal. 4th and 5th c. Gen. 21:8-10. Mal. 2:14, 15. Matt. 19:3-9. The Book of Mormon says: "Wherefore, my brethren, hear me, and hearken to the word of the Lord: For there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife, and concubines he shall have none, for I, the Lord God, delighteth in the chastity of women. And whoredoms are an abomination before me, saith the Lord of hosts."—Jacob 2:6, 7, 8, 9.

We believe that in all matters of controversy upon the duty of man toward God, and in reference to preparation and fitness for the world to come, the word of God should be decisive and the end of dispute; and that when God directs, man should obey.

We believe that the religion of Jesus Christ, as taught in the New Testament Scriptures, will, if its precepts are accepted and obeyed, make men and women better in the domestic circle, and better citizens of town, county and state, and consequently better fitted for the change which cometh at death.

We believe that men should worship God in "Spirit and in truth;" and that such worship does not require a violation of the constitutional law of the land. John 4:21-24. Doctrine and covenants, sec. 58, par. 5.

We claim the privilege of worshiping Almighty God according to the dictates of our conscience, and allow all men the same privilege, let them worship how, where, or what they may.

MINISTER FASHIONS OWN COFFIN FROM AGED TREE

Noblesville, Ind., July 5.—The Rev. James Hill, a retired minister, who lives on a farm in the northern part of this county, has just finished the coffin in which he will be buried. It is solid walnut and highly polished. The timber was cut from a tree on his farm which was planted by his grandmother ninety years ago. He has placed the coffin in a local undertaking establishment and it will remain there until the time comes to use it.

Mrs. Lillian Seleeman will return today from Bolckow, where she has been spending several weeks with relatives.

Her Offering.

The elder sister had married a grocer and was well pleased with her choice. But not so her eighteen-year-old sister. She was taking great pains to impress the family with her ambitions for a husband. "He'll have to be a college graduate, a successful man in some big business and very handsome," she ended.

The elder sister smiled placidly. "And what charms," she asked blandly, "have you to offer for all these demands?"—Indianapolis News.

Pineapple Fiber for Cloth.

The pineapple, curious as it may appear to people in the occident who know it only as an article of food, is used in China for making cloth. At least, its leaves are so used. The leaf fiber, after being extracted by a simple process, is first made into thread. The thread is then spooled and run on bobbins. Old-fashioned native looms next handle the thread, converting it into a serviceable cloth.

HENRY HAWK IS AGAIN AT LARGE

MAKES GETAWAY FROM JAIL AT GRANT CITY YESTERDAY

AT THE DINNER HOUR

Janitor, Serving Criminal Dinner, Overcome and Hawk Makes Good His Escape.

Henry Hawk, notorious criminal of Maryville, is again at large. Yesterday noon, while the janitor of the jail at Grant City was taking Hawk's dinner into him, Hawk attacked him and put him out of the way, making a clean getaway from the jail.

At the time of the jail delivery the sheriff was out of town, there being no one about the jail but the janitor, Andy Sims, who is said to have been pretty badly used up in the encounter with the criminal.

Hawk was only recently brought back from an Oklahoma jail where he was serving out a term for bootlegging. While in the Oklahoma institution Hawk wrote a letter to the Worth County authorities at Grant City, telling them to come and get him for he was being used too "roughly" in Oklahoma and wanted to come back to Missouri to face a charge of burglary and larceny which had been laid against him by the prosecuting attorney of Worth county. Hawk and a partner were implicated in burglarizing a store at Sheridan some months ago.

CONTINUE GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT AGENCY

Service for Returned Soldiers, Sailors and Marines to Continue at Local Commercial Club.

Continuation of the Employment service for returned soldiers, sailors and marines, maintained at the Commercial Club in this city, which was ordered stopped several days ago because of lack of government funds, was ordered to be resumed in a leter from the United States Employment Agency at Kansas City to George A. Pickens last Thursday. The work of the government agencies will be carried on through a special appropriation passed by Congress for this purpose.

The ruling has little effect on the Commercial Club ageney, as a free employment service is maintained at all times by the Club.

ST. JOSEPH TEAM TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

Fast Stuppy-Floral Nine Comet Foe at Fair Grounds; Locals to Appear in New Uniforms.

The Maryville Comets will meet the fast St. Joe Stuppy-Florals at the Fair grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

The Stuppys have one of the fastest semi-pro teams in St. Joseph and have made an enviable record in the Commercial League at that place this season. The sar eam played here at Maryville two ago and won a close game 3 Comets have taken the count this season and this was at th the the St. Joseph Stockyards.

The new uniforms fo ets have arrived and the loca will make their first appearance in ie new suits tomorrow. The togs are of a classy gray stripped with black and are of the latest "big league" cut.

The Comets went to Albany yesterday where they were scheduled to meet the team of that place at the Fourth of July celebration. Jupiter Pluvius opened his flood gates, however, and the game was called off.

FORGOT "RAGS" FOR A DAY

Haines Dry Goods Store Proprietor and Employees Hold Annual Picnic with Kansas Crowd.

The annual summer outing of the Haines bunch, which takes place on July Fourth, was held on schedule yesterday with the proprietor, Mr. aHrvey L. Haines, host to his employes on a motor trip and picnic at Sabetha, Kan., where they met the Sabetha "Haines Bunch" and spent the day.

The crowd of fifteen including proprietor and clerks, started from Maryville at 4 o'clock in the morning and had a delightful drive over. Sabetha had planned a big celebration and the employes of the Haines store there had expected to be busy all day and dispense with the usual frolic with the Maryville crowd as is their custom.

The appearance of the bunch in Sabetha, was a complete surprise and they had brought with them everything eatable to enjoy a big spread at noon which was held on the lawn of the old Haines homestead, with Mr. Haines father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Haines as hosts. Mr. C. S. Haines, proprietor of the Sabetha store, with his wife and sons and the employes of the store numbering about twenty made up the Kansas guests. Besides the Haines Bunch proper, the Maryville crowd included Elmer Allen, a former clerk, who has just recently returned from a long period of military duty overseas, and Miss Marie Smith of Denver, Colo., a house guest of Miss Gladys Ford.

As the storm clouds became evident just about the time the Burlington train left Sabetha, the picnickers selected the dry and safe route by train for the return trip, arriving home at 8:30 last night.

The stunt was planned as a surprise for the Sabetha folks and greeting cards and souvenirs in the Haines colors read "from the Playful Haines Bunch to the Hard Working Haines Bunch.

G. D. Reynolds of Chicago, arrived in Maryville Thursday evening to spend a week visiting friends.

GREATEST AFFAIR OF ITS KIND EVER ATTEMPTED BY A CHURCH

LIFE PLAYS WONDERFUL

"The Wayfarer" a Most Sublime and Inspiring Spectacle—Musical Features of Every Nature.

Dr.and Mrs. Gilbert S. Cox arrived this morning from Columbus, Ohio, where they have been attending the Centenary Celebration of the American Methodist Missions. Rev. W. F. Burris returned Thursday night. The rest of the party that went from here are spending a few more days at Columbus. Dr. Cox and Rev. Burris say that the big meeting is the most inspiring and elaborate event of its kind ever attempted by any religious organization and that words can not describe the magnificent spectacles and meetings that were held daily.

The Centenary Celebration which began June 20 will last until July 13. Hundreds of thousands of people from all countries of the world are in attendance and the people of Columbus have opened their houses to the immense throngs. The exhibits and the meetings are being held at the State Exposition Grounds at Columbus. The coliseum in which the indoor gatherings take place is the largest place of its kind in the world, seating 8,000 people.

There were addresses, entertainments, musical features and pageants of all kinds on the daily program. Addresses were made by such notables as William Jennings Bryan, John R. Mott, Pearly Baker and other famous speakers.

Musical numbers of various nature were given almost hourly. The Chicago and Cincinnati orchestras gave daily concerts and participated in many pageants.

A great organ which cost $50,000 to install furnished music in the big coliseum in the evenings.

Choruses, consisting of hundreds of people sang on many special occasions A children's chorus, made up of 1,000 white and colored boys and girls, participated in the Children's Crusade, Children's Day, July 4. The Spirituals were sung by a selected group of singers from the Southern Colleges.

A Trombone Choir of one hundred pieces, the greatest organization of its kind ever essembled, gave open air concerts. Edna White's Trumpeters were, also, a musical feature. Four big bands were there, giving concerts several times daily.

A magnificent pageant, "The Wayfarer," by J. E. Crowther, was one of the outstanding events among many others at the Celebration. The solo music for "The Wafarer," consisted largely of Oratorio selections from Handel's "Messiah," and Gormed's "Redemption." There were, also, a number of selections from Stainer's 'Crucifixion." The solo selections were sung by famous artists from New York City, assisted by a mammoth chorus of 1,000 voices. 2,800 people took part in the pageant, 500 appearing on the stage at one time.

A most striking feature of the Centenary meet was the life plays and demonstrations. These consisted of buildings in which native scenes, with natives participating, were set up in the "atmosphere" of the people of that region. For example in the India building were exact models of Mohammedan mosques, Hindu temples, village scenes and streets and court scenes. The most wonderful scene in this building was a large painting 150 feet in length of the Ganges river. There were eleven of these buildings, depicting the native life and habits in every country in the missionary world Hundreds of natives were brought to this country and six months' time was given to the building and arrangement of these exhibits.

Innumerable lectures, dealing with all kinds of religious, social, and civic problems were given by the leaders of the departments of the Methodist church and great religious and social workers from all parts of the world.

Steam Yacht and Two Destroyers Ordered to Tow Craft in—Now in the Bay of Fundy.

Mineola, L. I., July 5.—Within sight of the American mainland and with the victory almost won, the giant British dirigible was reported this afternoon to be stalled between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia over the Bay of Fundy. It was on the last lap of the trans-Atlantic flight. First reports that the dirigible was in trouble came to officials here through the naval wireless stations who picked up messages from the dirigible, asking if a destroyer could proceed to the south end of the Bay of Fundy to take her into tow. The Navy department ordered a converted steam yacht, together with two destroyers to proceed to her rescue at once. It is supposed that the dirigible is out of petrol.

"A GOOD DAY FOR DUCKS"—BAD DAY FOR CELEBRATORS

Conception Fourth of July Program Was "Hampered" by Big Rain.

The big Fourth of July celebration which was to have been held at Conception yesterday did not get to materialize. About noon it began to rain and rained so consistently that the spiritsof the crowd gathering to attend the day's festivities were dampened and they made their way home as quickly and conveniently as they could Prosecuting Attorney Charles McCaffrey, who was to have "spellbound" the afternoon crowd claims that, at least, two inches of rain fell between the noon hour and 6 o'clock.

Tie-up on the Burlington.

The front trucks and drivers of an engine on the Burlington railroad jumped the track a short distance above Rosendale this morning, and while a wrecker was being awaited, the schedule was tied up.

The passenger from St. Joseph which is due to arrive here at 11:50 a. m., did not come in until 3:15 this afternoon.

To Live in Maryville.

Capt. John W. Raines and Miss Edith Raines left Rock Port Sunday for Maryville, from which place they left Tuesday for Colorado, where they will spend the greater part of the summer visiting Miss Theodosia Raines. When Mr. Raines returns in the fall he will make his home with the family of his son, Bert Raines, at Maryville. Having disposed of his business interests in Rock Port in connection with the abstract business which he has managed a number of years, he will from now on take things easy. His great host of Rock Port friends will regret his decision to leave the town where he has lived so many years, but he will doubtless find much happiness to be with the family of one of his children.—Rock Port Mail.

Spent Fourth at Big Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Wallis, Jr., Dr. H. L. Stinson, E. E. Williams and Donald Williams drove to Big Lake yesterday to spend the day. On account of the heavy rain at that place they left their car at Bigelow and returned to Maryville on the train.

MARYVILLE FOURTH SAFE AND SANE

AFTERNOON RAIN PUTS A CRIMP IN MOTOR TRIPS AND PICNICS

DEMPSEY NEW CHAMPION

Big Toledo Fight Returns Prove Attraction for "Stay-at-Homes" Maryville Women Show Interest.

A day of unusual quiet with only the occasional "pop" of a "baby" fire cracker, marked the passing of the Fourth of July in Maryville, and the old time crash and bang of the pre-war celebrations was noticeable by its absence.

The old fashioned family picnic came into its own yesterday, and scores of Maryville folks loaded baskets with good things to eat, filled their gasoline tanks with gas, and hied themselves to the country where they could spend the day next to Good Mother Nature. Jupiter Pluvius, however, took a hand in the affairs, and with his customary disregard for persons, time or place, open up his flood gates and put a crimp in the holiday plans with a heavy deluge of rain. According to Weather Forecaster Brink, .44 of an inch of rainfall fell yesterday afternoon.

Many of the picnickers were forced to abandon their cars in the mud, and return to Maryville last night via train.

Considerable interest in the Willard-Dempsey fight at Toledo yesterday was shown by those who stayed at home and throughout the afternoon a large crowd was before the windows of the Democrat-Forum awaiting the returns of the bout. Those who did not brave the elements to get the returns of the fight used the telephone to get their information, and for several hours the office of the Democrat-Forum was bombarded by barrage of calls. Contrary to the general idea that women are not sport enthusiastis, a large percentage of the calls yesterday were from feminine devotees of the square ring sport.

The fight at Toledo started well after 3:30, the time originally set for the opening of the hostilities, and the first report received over the International News wire here, was that Willard had been knocked out in the fourth round. Later, official reports from the ringside stated that the champion quit at the opening of the fourth round.

According to the returns, the fight started with a rush by Dempsey in which he knocked Willard down five times in the first round. The succeeding two rounds were all for Dempsey with Willard "covering up" and attempting to hang on through clinches. He was in a pitable condition at the end of the fight and his seconds threw up the towel at the opening of the fourth to save their man from the inhuman punishment which Dempsey was handing him.

VON HINDENBURG TAKES WAR BLAME

FORMER GERMAN CHIEF-OF-STAFF ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY

ANSWERS FOR KAISER

All Proclamations Were Issued Upon My Advice and Responsibility, He Says in Message to Pres. Ebert.

Copenhagen, July 5.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, former chief-of-staff of the German Army, who has just retired to private life at Hanover, has telegraphed President Ebert, accepting the responsibility for all acts and decisions of the German Army headquarters subsequent to August, 1916, and also the full responsibility for all proclamations issued by the ex-Kaiser regarding the waging of war, said a dispatch from Hanover this afternoon. "Proclamations were issued upon my advice and responsibility, and I beg you to inform the Allies of this," said Hindenburg in his message.

PICNICKERS" HAD A BIG TIME---GETTING HOME

Started to Eat Their "Chow"Last Night But Will Finish Job Tonight.

About two hundred and fifty picknickers from the West First street neighborhood, journeyed out to the Ford farm ten miles west of Maryville yesterday to waste away the day in fun and frivolity. The trip was made in motor cars and in trucks. The real sports making the drive in a big truck steered by Homer Brown.

The chief dissipation of the joy party was to have been a baseball game but "the winds blew and the rains came" and there was none.

A mad scramble for a ride to Maryville featured the afternoon's program Upon arrival in town many of the party became fistic fans, watching the news flashes on the Democrat-Forum windows about the Willard-Dempsey ring classic.

Supper was eaten in a vacant house adjoining the Dr. Jesse Miller residence on West First street but the diners could not make away with all the east and are going to the college park tonight to finish the big feed.

NEWS FROM

Clearmont News.

Earl Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Lewis, arrived home Monday evening, having just been discharged from the service. He has been in the service for more than two years, having enlisted before the first draft. He was among the first to go across the water and had been there about 20 months. He is like all the rest glad to get home.

Last Monday was Miss Nora Andrew's 18th birthday and her parents invited in a number of her associates and friends to spend the evening and assist in celebrating the event. Refreshments were served during the evening. A general good time was enjoyed by all present.

Robert Pence has leased his Poultry, Butter and Egg business, business house and residence to C. H. Snodgrass of Coin, Iowa, who will take charge of the business at once and move here at once.

Hopkins Journal.

John Galey and family and Charlie Owens returned last week from a trip to Siloam Springs, Ark., made in a car, being guests while there in the homes of Joe Galey and Wm. French. They met Cabe Miller, who is renewing his youth at the Springs, and also Judge Frank Hanna who has located there. A street fair was on at the Springs and Roy Godsay was there with his air plane doing a rushing business taking people to the clouds at one dollar a minute for each passenger. He is dated ahead for sometime but hopes to be able "to fly up" to Hopkins soon.

Through the agency of Sam Robbins, Henry Thompson has bought sixty acres of land of Wm. Clark, east of Hopkins at $125 an acre.

Rev. and Mrs. D. F. Stiles have as guests at the Methodist parsonage, Mr. and Mrs. Haltiwanger, who are here from Central America with a view of locating in the United States owing to the unrest among the inhabitants of Panama. Mrs. Haltiwanger, who visited here last September, is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Stiles.

Mrs. Eri Edmonds after having practically lived in Hopkins for 31 years, has given this place up as her home having sold her property to Wray Mahan, and it is with regret her many old friends say "goodbye."

Rev. Edmonds organized the first ladies aid of the Methodist church in Hopkins 31 years ago and of course his wife was a charter member, working faithfully with her husband when health permitted. Rev. Edmonds, well known as a minister thruout the whole of Northwest Missouri, was called to his reward three years ago. Mrs. Edmonds left Monday for Pickering where she will visit for a months in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Herbert, before going to the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Goodson, at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Pickering Items.

Our young Irish prosecutor, Chas. McCaffrey, is no respector of person and treats all alike. When a big corporation crosses his path he buckles on his armor and goes after it the same as he would a common bootlegger. Last week he caused the arrest of the station agent at Burlington on a charge of delivering booze. We are hoping that Mack sets the hair on the railroad company. Nodaway county is dry territory and the railroads have no business to haul in and deliver booze to the red noses and boys. Go right after them, Charley, the big majority of the people are with and for you.

We see where Fred Wolfers made a spread eagle talk at a street improvement meeting at Hopkins but would not come to his old home town and deliver the 4th of July address. Never mind, Fred, we'll get even with you by electing you prosecuting attorney the next time this office is to be filled.

Burlington Junction Post.

Just a year ago Thursday evening Burlington Junction had the most disastrous fire in its history. The blaze started in the Evans & Boyer garage from a gasoline explosion, and spread rapidly. It was never checked until it swept the west half of the principal business block of the town.

Five buildings were practically destroyed and two badly damaged by the fire. Those suffering the greatest loss were Corken Brothers, Corken & Yaple the Northwestern Bank and Dr. M. Carter, J. G. House, druggist, J. E. Rhodes real estate office, and Evans & Boyer garage were damaged or destroyed. The entire plant of the Post printing office went up in smoke, or down in junk.

But this great loss could not check the progressive spirit of those who suffered from the flames. Rebuilding was started just as soon as insurance adjustments could be made and the debris of the fire cleared away.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnston of Chicago are making an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caldwell on the Caldwell ranch west of town. Mrs. Johnston was formerly Miss Vern Calhoun, her marriage to Mr. Johnston taking place in Des Moines last week.

The city council met in regular session Thursday evening and passed an ordinance for paving four blocks of Main street. Bids are being advertised for this week. The bids will be opened July 18. Geo. Custer of Kansas City, who has been engaged to do the engineer work, was here Monday running the grades. He was assisted in this work by County Surveyor Miller.

The Methodist choir held a picnic at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nicholas Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Corken and children, who have gone to Hiawatha, Kan., to make their home. Members of the choir and their families and the Corken families, about forty in all, were present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Geo. A. Yates bought the 80 acre tract of land located east of the John Boyer farm Friday of Mrs. W. P. Neff. The transaction was made by J. E. Rhodes. The consideration was $112.50.

O. F. Wilson has been confined to the St. Francis hospital in Maryville suffering from a severe carbuncle on the back of his neck. The inflammation had been present for some time, but last week it became much worse and Mr. Wilson was advised to go to the hospital Friday.

"I'm about fed up," remarked Geo. McKnight Monday, who with his family is visiting relatives and old friends in Burlington Junction and Maryville. George is authority for the statement that Nodaway county women are still the best cooks in the world, saying he never had as many good meals as during his visit here.

Richard Zarn has bought the residence property which was the home for many years of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis. He will make the house thoroughly modern by installing a furnace and connecting an electric motor pump with the water system.

Skidmore News.

Two more of our boys rolled in home the past week after having seen service across the sea.

Both of these arrived home last Saturday morning and they are sure husky looking chaps. We are talking about Tom Hickerson, who arrived Saturday morning on the northbound passenger and Adrain Taylor who came home by way of Maryville.

Word has been received of the arrival of Bert Garnett last Sunday at Camp Devens and he is expected home in a few days.

After the cutting blade of the big township road grader had been sharpened at the Weddle blacksith shop last Monday it had been taken out and left to cool. Almost immediately, Dean Weddle, the eldest son of J. W. Weddle, Jr., came barefooted to the shop and stepped on the hot blade with both feet burning them so badly that the little fellow is suffering considerable pain He is getting along as well as could be expected, but it will be several days before he can get about without pain.

At a meeting held at the News office last Friday evening the following officers were elected to have charge of business of the chautauqua which will be held here July 30 to August 4, inclusive:

L. D. JORDAN, president.
J. C. Spahr, vice-president.
W. G. Reynolds, secretary.
G. L. Owen, treasurer.
A. C. Dodds, chairman advertising.
C. E. Owens, chairman grounds.
G. L. Owens, chairman tickets.

Elmo Register.

Miss Leona Grace Badger of Barnard was in town Saturday. She leaves this week for Los Angeles, Calif., for a visit of several weeks, and will not return until about time for school to open September 1. She is principal of the Elmo high school, and an efficient teacher.

Mr. Alexander says the Lincoln Township has gone over the top in the drive for the Salvation Army. Some districts had not yet reported, but the amount in sight was a little over $200. Elmo district raised $67.31. It looks like anyone would be ashamed not to contribute something however small it might be to this worthy cause.

Guilford Times.

Work is progressing fine on the new Bank building. Den Davis is laying the brick and A. C. Lee and Earl Montgomery are supplying him with brick and mortar. Lester Ellis is the contractor who has the building in charge until finished.

H. C. Skidmore and wife left Monday on train No. 2 for the West where they will spend a while visiting and sight seeing on the Western coast.

E. E. Carver was over near Graham one day last week to visit his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Rowlett, who is very poorly and had spent about two weeks in a hospital in St. Joseph.

Parnell Sentinel.

Wm. Nye and wife arrived here a few days ago from northwest Nebraska This is their first visit here since they left 38 years ago. They formerly lived on the place now owned by Arch Woods. Many changes have taken place since they left here. There was no Parnell at that time and no railroad through this part of the country. Land sold than at $10 to $15 per acre and wasn't wanted at those prices very much.

We understand the two barber shops consolidated this afternoon and that the business will be conducted at the Bmummett place from now on.

Dr. and Mrs. K. C. Cummins and sons, Gene and Francis, left Thursday on a motor trip to Chugwater, Wyo.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

The Final Act in John Barleycorn's Lurid Life Enacted in Judge Duncan's Court.

Some wag (or rather a coterie of them) gave Judge A. B. Duncan a pleasant half hour in his court Monday afternoon when they filed with due solemnity the last will and testament of the defunct (that night) John Barleycorn. It was dated June 30, 1919, and witnessed by Bronx Cocktail and Cherry Highball. Here is the unique document:

"I, John Barleycorn of the United States of North America, being of sound and disposing mind and mindful of my demise on this last day of June, 1919, do make public and declare this to be my last will and testacent:

"1. I direct that the executor of my estate pay all my expense, funeral, etc.

"2. I will all of my highball, whiskey, wine and champagne glasses to my dear friend Marsh Mallow Sundae.

"3. I give and bequeath and device all my saloons, cafes and cabarets to my dear friend, O. U. Teetotaler.

"4. All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate (consisting largely of M. T. bottles) I give and bequeath to my beloved friend, Aqua Pura, he being a very close friend and associated with me in all business transactions.

"In witness whereof I hereby set my hand this 30th day of June, 1919.

(Signed) JOHN BARLEYCORN.

(Witnesses)
BRONX COCKTAIL.
CHERRY HIGHBALL."

Immediately after the filing of the will a gentlemen in mourning, giving his name as O. I. M. Dry, appeared in the court and was granted letters testamentary upon filing of a $1,000,000 bond.

The will reads as follows:

"An inventory of the estate of the late John Barleycorn was filed in the Probate Court by the executor, O. I. M. Dry, and lists the following property:

"Personal Liberty, valued at $5,000,000,000.

"Twenty-five shares of stock in the Rotgut Distilling Company, valued at 50 cents.

"One hundred shares of stock in the Moonshine and Bootlegger Company, the value of which is so enormous that it cannot be estimated."

The inventory was signed by the following witnesses:

O. F. C. GUCKENHEIMER.
GIN RICKEY,
BELLE NELSON.

—St. Joseph Observer.

Joseph Jackson, Jr., and Roy Curfman of this city and Harvey McClary of St. Joseph, are spending the week-end at Bik Lake.

CONTINUE EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES

St. Louis, July 5—As a result of Congress, an appropriation for the continuation of employement service bureaus W. Brown, director of the United States Employment Service instructed Examiner Way of the Market street branch and Examiner Martin J. Walsh of the Demobilization Bureau for Soldiers, Sailors and Marines to continue both branches.

Motored and "Railroaded" Both.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hotchkin and children, Mildred and Ralph, and Miss Juno Jones motored to St. Joseph yesterday to celebrate the Fourth. The trip was made in record time but Jupiter Pluvius flagged the party on their return trip and the car was stored in a Savannah garage, the occupants, returning home via the Burlington.

Weed-end at Bolckow.

Miss Nelle Hudson went to Bolckow today where she will spend the week-end, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Logan Wood.

One Big Gala Week.

Dubinsky Bros. Stock Co., with Barney Dubinsky, Francis Valley, Frank Long, Harry Vickerey, Madge Russel, Fern Rae and John G. Rae, and the famous Hawaiian Orchestra will be with us all next week starting Monday at the Big Tent Theatre located on East Third Street.

This season finds The Dubinsky Bros., presenting a line of plays that are seldom produced outside of Kansas City and St. Joseph. But the best is none too good for the patrons of these well known managers and while the expense to produce these plays under canvas is large, it gives the public the chance to see the best in the country at popular prices.

During the engagement such plays as "A Young Girl's Romance," "The Divorce Cure," "He Fell in Love with His Wife," "Johnny Get Your Gun," "Champagne and Buttermilk" will be presented.

This year it requires one 70 foot baggage car to transport the scenery stage furniture and the electrical equipment alone besides a car for the other regular tent equipment.

The opening play Monday night will be, the comedy drama sensation, "The Girl Who Dared." Make it a point to be there Monday night sure.

Miss Jeanette Tate is here from Grant City for a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Tate.

MINISTER REVIEWS THE LIFE OF JOHN BARLEYCORN

Rev. C. G. Bellah in St. Louis Pulpit, Gives a History of King Booze.

St. Louis, July 5—In a facetious sermon on the "funeral of J. Barleycorn," Rev. C. G. Bellah, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church here declared that our tried and untrue friend was born in the home of Noah, in Mount Ararat, Southern Asia, 2347, B. C.

"John was an unruly child from his birth," the pastor said "and manifested a growing spirit of foam and ferment. His age at death was 4266 years."

Rev. Mr. Bellah related "minor operations, removing part of his anatomy," and " an attack of dry decay, when Maine went dry in 1851, after which he was never quite the same. Then the women became incensed at him, and the W. C. T. U. secured a divorce and never asked or desired alimony from him."

Barleycorn has, " a cutting pain near the heart in 1901, when the canteen was abolished from the U. S. Army.

"And all this culminated in the bone-dry amendment, December, 1916," the preacher said.

An amusing passage was the "church affilations" of "J. Barleycorn.'

"Thousands of young men and women became first acquainted with him at the church altar. Others have gone to church, hoping never to meet him again, but have been mortified to find that John had personal friends in both pulpit and pew."

The business relations of John were spoken of. John's sales for the past year were $3,000,000,000. He had an income of about $7,000,000, the pastor said.

"He created a lot of business for the poor. Many a washerwoman would have had nothing to do but care for the home and rear the children if it had not been for John. If John had gone to the poorhouse, most of the inmates would have gone out."

"John Barleycorn's social life was also touched upon. "Few liked to live near him," said the minister. "No realtor in advertising stated as an inducement the fact that John lived next door or on the next corner.

"John Barleycorn" was not a conscientious objector, but a conscienceless objector. While the beggar was striving for maintenance, John's bins were packed with malt and meal. While the poor shivered for lack of coal, he not only had his sheds full, but tried to tie up the railroads with his own business. He became acquainted with the boys in khaki, and was so persistent that the government had to establish zones around the camps and forbid his entrance.

"Once more a reeling, staggering nation may walk steadily again. We have sheathed the sword and shelved the still. War and wine are over, a kaiser and knave are crushed. Five million happy mothers may cuddle their offspring and look across the hearth at sober, loving husbands; 5,000,000 prosperous men may go to honest toil with a light heart, a firm tread and a full pail. Thank God for this."

NOT MUCH INTERESTED IN OLD; WANTS NEW ONE

Kansas City, July 5—"Seems to me there was a former suit by these parties," said Judge F. G. Hutchings, in his division of the Wyandotte County Circuit Court, addressing George Carr, a negro who was the plaintiff.

"That's correct," replied Carr. "Six yeas ago I filed suit for divorce in this very court. The case was taken under advisement. I never took the trouble to find out the decision."

Judge Hutchinson took the case under advisement again until the records could be looked up to see the disposition of the former case.

New York, July 5—Pity poor Lorena Carroll!

Surrogate Fowler has decided that Lorena, who is nineteen, must try to get along on $18,000 a year. She recently submited an application to have the amount increased to $22,500 a year because of the increased cost of living. The Court denied the application.

Miss Carroll is the daughter of Joseph D. Carroll, prominent horseman and politician, who died some time ago, leaving his daughter the income from $150,000 until she became of age, when she will get the residue of the estate, which is estimated at $1,250,000.

WHEN BEATTY PUT TO SEA

Like Drake of Old, Commander of British Fleet Left the Tennis Court for Battle.

Scarcely had I arrived at Aberdour when I learned that some unusual report had come in from the sea, Lieutenant Hunter writes in the World's Work. The admiral had arrived before me and continued to talk on his open wire for some moments. The fleet at once dropped from four to two and one-half hours' notice for steam and shortly afterward was making preparation for departure at a moment's notice. When Sir David came out to the tennis court he suggested that I need not answer the recall signal from my ship as expected, but return with him. "I don't believe they intend to shove off without me," he added. We started our game, but over the wire the admiral had thrown the scent into the kennels and already the leaders of that great pack, so apparently listless a short hour before, were bristling and snarling on the new-found trail. With a pleasant smile Admiral Beatty jerked his racket toward the Firth. From the court which overlooks the entrance could be seen the first of the screening groups as they slipped quietly to sea. Division followed division, as destroyers, light cruisers and scouts passed on to their appointed tasks. The grand fleet was in motion. In motion at the direction of its great commander in chief, who, while actually commanding his fleet by wire, was also my partner in a game of tennis. Messages came to him too often for his liking, as far as the game was concerned. Several he dispatched in reply, but it soon became too hot, forcing departure for a sterner game.

DEMAND NOW IS FOR MUSIC

Freak Attire and Mannerisms No Longer Attract Streams of Dollars to the Concert Hall.

It looks as if the old order of musicians will soon be moss covered. The tously headed individual in freak attire does not find his camouflaged personality a passport to capacity houses. If the dead composers had messages for modern humanity the messages must be interpreted by modern men and modern women.

The musician of today looks like a smart business or professional man rather than an idle dreamer, observes the Philadelphia Record. He is as good a customer as the barber has. Short cropped hair is supplanting the shaggy locks of former days. The schoolboy's Windsor tie and low collar have given way to the neat four in hand and regular business man's collar. The Buffalo Bill chapeau is ousted by the conventional fedora. Odd mannerisms which serve no useful purpose are cast off.

The modern musician is a good mixer. He wants to know his public first hand, and he enters into the general life of the community instead of acting the recluse. By mingling he has learned that people now want music, not gesticulations nor dress. Concert goers are more concerned about what they hear than what they see. An artist's reputation for freakishness off the stage does not offset poor execution on the stage. The music-loving public has developed to the point where sham and pretense are useless. Nothing but the ability to produce good music can get past.

Censor Hun Telephone Talks.

At first, all use of telephones was forbidden to the inhabitants of occupied towns (of Germany), but this rule has been relaxed also. In the French zone the natives are allowed telephone calls within their own city; while in Coblenz the Americans allow this and also permit the use of five trunk lines from the occupied territory into Germany proper. Thus a German in Coblenz may talk directly to a German in Berlin.

Except in cases of extreme personal necessity, all such calls are supposed to be confined to the transaction of important business, and of course American army censors "listen in" on every call. This privilege was given to the Germans of Coblenz because it was found that the sudden and complete interruption of contact between the two banks of the Rhine caused a great deal of inconvenience and suffering.—Gregory Mason in Outlook.

Starting Something.

The household was comparatively quiet when the ten-year-old son looked up from the last page of a recent issue of the News and inquired of both parents sitting near: "What's funny about this here 'Abe Martin?' 'There's never anything t' eat in a home where th' wife is on an allowance.'" "The joke, my son," his father replied, "is that instead of spending the allowance for eats, the wife blows it in for clubs, clothes, candy and conventions." "No, son," said the mother, "the fact is that the allowance is not large enough to provide a hotel menu, though the men seem to think it is. And that is no joke, either."—Indianapolis News.

Bullet in Brain Twenty Years.

After living for 20 years with a bullet in his brain, Edgar Wilgus, an insurance broker of Trenton, N. J., was killed by a 5-foot fall on the granite steps of a New York hotel. The medical examiner, discovering the bullet in the man's brain, thought at first that he had been unaccountably shot, but learned by telephoning to his home how long he had carried the bullet in his head.

THE FAITH AND DOCUMENTS OF THE LATTER DAY SAINTS.

We believe in God the Eternal Father and in His Son Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost. Matt. 28:19. 1 John 1:3. St. John 11:26.

We believe that men will be punished for their own sins, and not for Adam's transgression. Ecc. 12:14. Matt. 16:27. 1 Cor. 3:13. Rev. 20:12-15.

We believe that through the atonement of Christ, all men may be saved, by obedience to the laws and ordinances of the gospel. 1 Cor. 15:3. 2 Tim. 1:10. Rom. 8:1-6.

We believe that these ordinances are:

(1st.) Faith in God and in the Lord Jesus Christ. Heb. 11:6. 1 Peter 1:21. 1 Tim. 4:10. John 3:16, 18, 36. Mark 11:22. John 14:1.

(2) Repentence. Matt. 3:2, 8, 11. Luke 13:3; 24:47. Ezek. 18:30. Mark 1:5, 15. Acts 2:38. Rom. 2:4. 2 Cor. 7:10.

(3rd.) Baptism by immersion, for the remission of sins. Matt. 3:13-15. Mark 1:4, 5. Luke 3:3. John 3:5. Acts 2:28; 22:16; 2:41; 8:12; 37, 38. Mark 16:16. Col. 2:12. Rom. 6:4, 5. John 3:22. Acts 8:38, 39.

(4th.) Laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost. Deut. 34:8. John 20:21, 22. Acts 8:17; 19:6. 1 Tim. 4:14. Acts 9:17. 1 Cor. 12:3. Acts 19:1-6.

(5th.) We believe in the Resurrection of the Body; that the dead in Christ will rise first, and the rest of the dead will not live again until the thousand years are expired. Job 19:25, 26. Dan. 12:2. 1 Cor. 15:42. 1 Thess-4:16. Rev. 20:6. Acts 17:31. Phil. 3:21. John 11:24. Isaiah 26:19. Ps. 17:15.

(6th.) We believe in the doctrine of Eternal Judgment, which provides that men shall be judged, rewarded, or punished, according to the degree of good, or evil, they shall have done. Rev. 20:12. Ecc. 3:17. Matt. 16:27. 2 Cor. 5:10. 2 Peter 2:4, 13, 17.

P5:: .: (:HI; N-3;9ro

We believe that a man must be Called of God, and ordained by the Laying on of Hands of those who are in authority to entitle him to preach the Gospel, and Administer in the Ordinances thereof. Heb. 5:1, 5, 6, 8. Acts 1:24, 25; 14:23. Eph. 4:11. John 15:16.

We believe in the same kind of organization that existed in the primitive church, viz: Apostles, Phophets, Pastors, Teachers, Evangelists, &c. 1 Cor. 12:28. Matt. 10:1. Acts 6:4. Eph. 4:11; 2:20. Titus 1:5.

We believe that in the Bible is contained the word of God, so far as it is translated correctly. We believe that the canon of scripture is not full, but that God, by His Spirit, will continue to reveal His word to man until the end of time. Job 32:8. Hebrews 13:8. Proverbs 29:18. Amos 3:7. Jeremiah 23:4; 31:31, 34; 33:6. Psalms 85:10, 11. Luke 17:26. Rev. 14:6, 7; 19:10.

We believe in the powers and gifts of the everlasting gospel, viz: the gift of faith, discerning of spirits, prophecy, revelation, visions, healing, tongues, and the interpretation of tongues, wisdom, charity, brotherly love, &c. 1 Cor. 12:1-11; 14:26. John 14:24. Acts 2:3. Matt. 28:19,20. Mark 16:16.

We believe that Marriage is ordained of God; and that the law of God provides for but one companion in wedlock, for either man or woman,—except in cases where the contract of marriage is broken by death of transgression. Genesis 2:18, 21-24; 7:1, 7, 13. Proverbs 5:15-21. Malachi 2:14, 15. Matthew 19:4-6. 1 Cor. 7:2. Heb. 13:4. Doctrine and Covenants, sec. 42:7; 49:3.

We believe that the doctrines of a plurality and a community of wives are heresies, and are opposed to the law of God. Gen. 4:19, 23, 24; 7:9; 22:2, in connection Gal. 4th and 5th c. Gen. 21:8-10. Mal. 2:14, 15. Matt. 19:3-9. The Book of Mormon says: "Wherefore, my brethren, hear me, and hearken to the word of the Lord: For there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife, and concubines he shall have none, for I, the Lord God, delighteth in the chastity of women. And whoredoms are an abomination before me, saith the Lord of hosts."—Jacob 2:6, 7, 8, 9.

We believe that in all matters of controversy upon the duty of man toward God, and in reference to preparation and fitness for the world to come, the word of God should be decisive and the end of dispute; and that when God directs, man should obey.

We believe that the religion of Jesus Christ, as taught in the New Testament Scriptures, will, if its precepts are accepted and obeyed, make men and women better in the domestic circle, and better citizens of town, county and state, and consequently better fitted for the change which cometh at death.

We believe that men should worship God in "Spirit and in truth;" and that such worship does not require a violation of the constitutional law of the land. John 4:21-24. Doctrine and covenants, sec. 58, par. 5.

We claim the privilege of worshiping Almighty God according to the dictates of our conscience, and allow all men the same privilege, let them worship how, where, or what they may.

MINISTER FASHIONS OWN COFFIN FROM AGED TREE

Noblesville, Ind., July 5.—The Rev. James Hill, a retired minister, who lives on a farm in the northern part of this county, has just finished the coffin in which he will be buried. It is solid walnut and highly polished. The timber was cut from a tree on his farm which was planted by his grandmother ninety years ago. He has placed the coffin in a local undertaking establishment and it will remain there until the time comes to use it.

Her Offering.

The elder sister had married a grocer and was well pleased with her choice. But not so her eighteen-year-old sister. She was taking great pains to impress the family with her ambitions for a husband. "He'll have to be a college graduate, a successful man in some big business and very handsome," she ended.

The elder sister smiled placidly. "And what charms," she asked blandly, "have you to offer for all these demands?"—Indianapolis News.

Pineapple Fiber for Cloth.

The pineapple, curious as it may appear to people in the occident who know it only as an article of food, is used in China for making cloth. At least, its leaves are so used. The leaf fiber, after being extracted by a simple process, is first made into thread. The thread is then spooled and run on bobbins. Old-fashioned native looms next handle the thread, converting it into a serviceable cloth.
